

GROUP 1

THE FIFTH THROUGH THE TENTH COMMANDMENTS

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Use the essays in your Parent's Guide to help answer these questions.

1. The Fifth Commandment says, "You shall not kill." What specifically does this commandment forbid and what are some examples?
2. We are made of body and soul. Does the Fifth Commandment only forbid killing the body? Can we spiritually "kill" others?
3. What is a specific circumstance in which killing someone is not murder?
4. What does the Fifth Commandment compel us to do?
5. What is a way you can personally uphold the Fifth Commandment?

GROUP
2

THE FIFTH THROUGH THE TENTH COMMANDMENTS

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Use the essays in your Parent's Guide to help answer these questions.

6. The Sixth Commandment says, "You shall not commit adultery." What specifically does this commandment forbid and what are some examples?
7. How is our sexuality a part of God's beautiful plan for humanity? Can you connect this to what we have learned about the domestic church?
8. What do we need to do to keep the Sixth Commandment?
9. How does Jesus affirm and expand the Fifth and Sixth Commandments?

GROUP
3

THE FIFTH THROUGH THE TENTH COMMANDMENTS

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Use the essays in your Parent's Guide to help answer these questions.

10. The Seventh Commandment says, "You shall not steal." What specifically does this commandment forbid and what are some examples?

11. What does the Seventh Commandment compel us to do?

12. How can you uphold the Seventh Commandment in your own life?

13. The Eighth Commandment says, "You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor."

14. What does the Eighth Commandment compel us to do?

15. How can we practically live out the Eighth Commandment in our own life on a daily basis?

GROUP
4

THE FIFTH THROUGH THE TENTH COMMANDMENTS

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Use the essays in your Parent's Guide to help answer these questions.

16. The Ninth Commandment prohibits us from “coveting our neighbor’s spouse” and the Tenth Commandment prohibits “coveting our neighbor’s goods.” What do these Commandments forbid and what is an example for each?

17. What is necessary to prevent sins that break the Ninth and Tenth Commandments?

18. How can you cultivate gratitude toward your spouse, and toward another person (your neighbor)? Give specific examples.