

TRIVIA GAME

1. In the year 1800, the federal government of the United States moved to its newly constructed capital in Washington, D.C., from what city?
2. If a mature female horse is called a mare, what do you call a mature male cat?
3. Tom Hanks won Best Actor Oscars in 1993 and 1994 for his roles in which films?
4. In human reproduction, the X and Y chromosomes determine sex. Is the X chromosome associated with male or female characteristics?
5. The largest Catholic cathedral in the United States, which opened in 2002, is located in what city?
6. Can the existence of God be known with certainty from the created world and natural reason? Yes or no.
7. What innovative, sometimes controversial French sculptor in 1904 unveiled a bronze work of a contemplative male, that he called Le Penseur?
8. Did Benjamin Franklin sign the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, both, or neither?
9. What company is the largest producer of computer software for the personal computer?
10. What is the largest Protestant denomination in the United States?
11. “Cross into the Blue” is the motto of what fast-moving organization?
12. Which 19th-century famous personality said, “You can fool all of the people some of the time, and some of the people all of the time, but you can’t fool all the people all the time”?
13. This animal, a variety of wild goat, lives in high mountain areas of Europe, Asia, and Africa, and has large backward-curving horns. What is the name of this animal?
14. What chemical element discovered in 1789 did Marie Curie prove to be radioactive in 1896?

15. The “sacred deposit” of the Faith can be found where?
16. The story of the birth of Jesus Christ is recorded in which book of the Bible?
17. What six-letter word can describe elaborate 11th-13th century churches, grotesque medieval fiction, or a style of clothing?
18. Which hero of Daniel Defoe’s 1719 novel was stranded and survived on a small tropical island for 24 years?
19. This vitamin that helps maintain the skin, eyes, healthy bones and teeth is found in milk, liver, eggs, butter, and vegetables. What is it?
20. In the 1920s the Harlem Globetrotters basketball team was formed in what city? (Hint – not New York City)
21. In U.S. law, what is the basic, general difference between libel and slander?
22. Name the two senses of Scripture.
23. What is the French equivalent for the German word Fraulein?
24. This 1859 novel, set during the French Revolution, is possibly the best-selling of all time, with over 200 million copies sold. What is the title/author?
25. Who holds the record for the most combined yards rushing in the Super Bowl? (Hint – he played in more than one Super Bowl in the course of his career)
26. Which of these events occurred first: the computer chip was patented, the Berlin Wall was erected, the Peace Corps was established?
27. What is the legal term for a voluntary written statement made under oath?
28. Queen Elizabeth’s only daughter was born in 1950. What’s her name?
29. What food is made from vegetable oil, egg yolks, and lemon juice, and is possibly named after a town in Spain?
30. In the canon of Scripture (the official list of which books constitute the Bible) there are _____ books (number of) in the Old Testament and _____ books (number of) in the New Testament.