

CAR

Conversations

Jesus' greatest miracle was rising from the dead. If you were St. Mary Magdalene or one of the Apostles, how do you think you would have reacted to the news that Jesus was risen?

Jesus tells us that the way we treat people in need is the way we treat Him. In fact, we will be judged by the way we treated “the least” of our fellow men. What changes can we make in our lives to see Jesus better in the face of the poor, the hungry, and the lonely?