

CAR

Conversations

Was there ever a time you had to have courage and stand up for someone or something you believe in? Was it hard? How did it feel afterward?

Can you think of a special way of sharing the gift of the Christ Child with your friends during this Christmas season, especially with those who might not know a lot about Jesus?