

CAR

Conversations

The Ten Commandments and the two Great Commandments place loving God first and then loving our neighbor. Why do you think that it is necessary to love God before we can love our neighbor?

The family is called the domestic church because it is the first place that children learn about Jesus. What a blessing that you are encountering Jesus together in this Family Program! What are some of your earliest memories learning about Jesus?

