Family Talk Time

Have you ever seen someone acting mercifully toward another person? Do you think it is easy to show mercy? When might it be hard to be merciful, even when we should be?

Prayer to say as a family this week:

Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself. Amen.

—From the Chaplet of Divine Mercy

This week, your child learned that:

- Mercy is love that continues even when it is rejected.
- God’s mercy is infinite.
- Throughout Salvation History, God has sought a relationship with mankind through establishing covenants with us.
- Covenants establish familial bonds and relationships.
- Covenants with man are clear signs of God’s mercy toward us.
